

Southwest Florida Regional Technology Partnership presents...TECHmatch 2016
Connecting Business to their future IT and TECH workforce.

Reserve your spot today!

The Southwest Florida Regional Technology Partnership (SWFRTP) invites companies who employ IT and TECH professionals to present at TECHmatch 2016. Space is limited to 20 companies' who will provide short presentations. We are reaching out to our SWFRTP sponsors with the first opportunity to sign up and be a part of this highly anticipated event. We will then open up to a broader audience after August 15th, so please RSVP to deborahjohnson.naples@gmail.com by August 15th.

Why you should participate?

Be a part of our signature event by pitching your company, growth potential or current open positions. Presenting at TECHmatch 2016 will gain you regional visibility to IT and Tech professionals looking to be part of this growing sector of the SWFL economy. This year's event will feature 20 regional companies who will present for 3-4 minutes. After all the companies present, area IT/Tech professionals and students will be able to interact with you face to face and discuss current and future employment opportunities. Please have technology leadership available for the attendees to meet and ask questions.
